Super facts on the SuperBowl

What's the Super Bowl ?

The most watched television program in American history is the Super Bowl. So what is the Super Bowl? Well, the Super Bowl is the culmination game in the National Football League (NFL), that determines the champion. This game is held every year between the winners of the National Football Conference (NFC) and the American Football Conference (AFC).

The first Super Bowl took place in Los Angeles, California at the Memorial Coliseum between the Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs, on January 15, 1967. The Packers won the game 35-10. The Super Bowl is usually held in a warm weather city, and the locations are picked 3-4 years in advance.
